

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Practice 	8 plus what is 15? 5 plus what is 12? 7 plus what is 10? 7 plus what is 11?	Read a non fiction story or an article from a magazine. Look for a text feature: table of contents, index, diagram, etc. Explain how the feature helps?	Pick two flowers, compare and contrast! 	Author's use Onomatopoeia words that describe sound. Bang, Stomp, Moo. Write three sentences using onomatopoeia.	Read 20 minutes. Log all books read. 	Practice Sight Words again, old, great
Practice 	Compare Numbers Write <, >, = 90 ___ 93 87 ___ 87 64 ___ 59	Read a non fiction story or an article from a magazine. Look for a text feature: title page, glossary, etc. Explain how the feature helps?	Find a picture of an old car. Compare and Contrast it to your parent's car. 	Similes craft authors use to help compare and describe. Write three similes. Example: Quiet as a mouse. Proud as a peacock.	Read 20 minutes. Log all books read. 	Practice Sight Words every should give
Practice 	Add a single digit to a two digit number with regrouping.  $23 + 8 = \underline{\quad}$ $29 + 6 = \underline{\quad}$	Read a story. Create a character interview by writing questions to the main character of the book.	Draw a picture of different types of bridges: arch, beam, suspension,, truss.	Fix the sentence. Cue: three mistakes.  jack ran slow in the rac  Underline the verb & circle the noun.	Read 20 minutes. Log all books read. 	Practice Sight Words something, thought
Practice 	How is adding a single digit to a two digit number different from adding two digit numbers together? How are they the same?	Read a story. Create a character analysis. Explain the personality, looks, and feelings of the main character.	Imagine you could build a bridge anywhere in the world. Where would you build it and how?	Compound words are two words put together to make new words. Create a list of compound words. Example, butter+fly= butterfly	Read 20 minutes. Log all books read. 	Practice Sight Words both, often, world

Name: .....

Write the title of the book under each day of the week read. Parent will initial and Teacher will check off with a stamp if every day is filled.

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Parent	Teacher Check off
Week of 3/4
Week of 3/11
Week of 3/18
Week of 3/25						